Recognition of Risks

The Trails Club of Oregon was organized in 1915 primarily for the enjoyment of outdoor activities such as trail hiking, mountain and rock climbing, skiing, cycling, swimming, camping and other similar activities involving the out-of-doors. While the club has had an excellent record, it is the responsibility of the Trails Club of Oregon to inform you that the activities, although peaceful in nature, can be dangerous and as such can cause severe injury and even death due to conditions and forces which we cannot predict. Having made you aware of these facts, the Trails Club of Oregon believes you make your own decision regarding your participation in these activities.

Trip Fees:    Members - $1.00 each day of activity
                       Non Members - $2.00 each day of activity
                       Recommended donation to driver for miles driven:

Declaration of Intent

I acknowledge that the Trails Club of Oregon has apprised me of the dangers and hazards, hidden or apparent, in the various activities it sponsors, as outlined to the left. I elect to accept such risks and undertake them on my own responsibility. My signature below signifies I hereby, for myself, my heirs and personal representatives, release and forever discharge the Trails Club of Oregon and its elected officers from any claims or demands for resultant injuries or even death, sustained by me, while participating in a Club sponsored event. I also understand that the Trails Club of Oregon requests that I carry on my person or in my pack, emergency contact information in the event that it is needed.

FWOC Member - $1.00 each day of activity
Children (14 years or less) – None
 $0.10 x _____ miles = $ _____

To our Guests – Trails Club of Oregon will neither sell nor give your personal information to any individual or organization. We are requesting it only to be used, if you request additional information about our club by indicating Y in the box (Req. Info) below.
